

THE BUNGALOW

£375,000

“A newly remodelled property in a thriving village”

Leintwardine, Herefordshire

On the edge of this popular, thriving village on the Herefordshire/ Shropshire border, this much-loved bungalow has been completely remodelled into a great home, designed to work with the requirements of modern living.

- Renovation with new design
- Thriving, popular village
- Off road parking
- Edge of village location
- Level garden
- Rural walks on your doorstep

In the final push towards completion, this renovation showcases a good flow in the layout as well as some nice touches of character in the solid wood beams and finishing touches. In addition, the developer is happy to incorporate the preferences of perspective buyers, wherever possible.

From the main entrance, a central hallway leads you along the full length of the property to access rooms on both sides. To the right is the lounge with a feature fireplace and large bay window offering great views across fields to the front; behind this is the master bedroom with a window overlooking the rear garden.

To the left hand side of the hallway lies another double bedroom and, behind this, the family bathroom. A third bedroom/ study sits at the rear of the property, also overlooking the garden.

The kitchen sits at the property rear and is connected directly to the dining area/ family room via an oak lintel arch. This space has double doors, which open out to the rear garden.

Outside: there is off-road parking to the front of the property as well as a useful storage “bunker”, a small garden area and decorative steps which lead up to the property. A pretty picket fence borders the front elevation and offers privacy. Paths flank either side of the bungalow and enable good access to the rear of the property.

The rear garden is level and houses a storage shed and is a great blank canvas for garden lovers.
