Enter via the front porch - with room to hang coats and shoes - through into the redesigned open-plan kitchen. The space features wrap-around units, double sink, larder-style storage cupboard, an oven with attractive red splash back and overhead extractor, as well as a serving counter, which opens the kitchen out to the rest of the home. The dining room sits to the side, with double aspect windows: a cosy space, perfect for entertaining friends and family. A set of stairs sits just behind and leads up to the first floor.

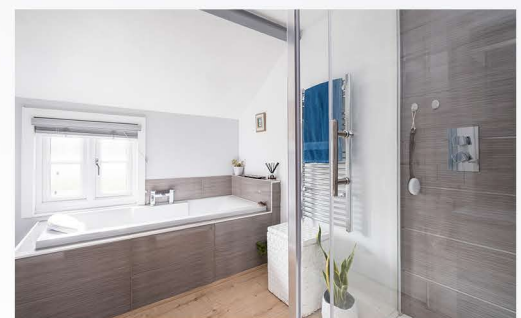

The sitting room lies to the rear of the property: with increased ceiling height, the room feels spacious but a cosy feel is maintained thanks to a large wood burning stove, which sits on the rear wall and provides a charming focal point. A sliding patio door accesses the rear patio.

To the other side of the property lies the useful utility room: here, there is room for white goods as well as cupboards and shelving, allowing all the working features of the home to be tidily tucked away. Behind this is a large shower room, consisting of a WC, a cupboard-mounted wash hand basin and a tiled shower enclose.

A further door leads through to the ground floor bedroom. This room will accommodate a double bed and has dual aspect windows. This room connects through to the living room.

Upstairs the vendors have created a beautiful, spacious master bedroom suite. This light and airy room features large built-in wardrobes and plenty of floor space for changing. In addition, there is a superb attendant ensuite bathroom: with a stylish bath, large shower enclosure, WC, towel rail and vanity unit with wash hand basin.

Outside: the property lies to the side of the road and flanked with a fencing and mature hedging. There is ample off-road parking and there is plenty of room to add a carport or garage, subject to necessary approval. A new patio area sits off the sitting room and is a great spot to enjoy summer barbecues or evening drinks. Decorative walling and attractive steps lead up to the extensive lawned garden. There is a kitchen garden to keep cooks happy as well as potting and storage sheds. A superb, rural outlook of open fields and mighty oaks is ever-present and sits over the rear boundary.

Area: Ivy Cottage is situated on the outskirts of Lyonshall Village. The area is well-known for amazing, scenic walks, fabulous eateries and easy access to many annual food and rural festivals. A modern, highly rated GP surgery is close by, with dental practice and physiotherapy department. The market town of Kington is a short drive away with shops, public houses, cafés and school.
